FENCE CO. WINS CONTRACT

A $50,620 contract went to the C & W Fence Co. of Gardena for Interstate 8 work in San Diego County. It calls for the replacement of chain link fencing along portions of the freeway from the East Victoria Dr. Undercrossing to 0.3 miles west of East Willows Undercrossing.

LOCAL COUPLE BUY REX ALL

John and Susan Jennings of Lakeside have recently purchased Alpine Rexall from Jerry and Bea Funk who are planning an extended vacation. The Jennings took over last month, are hoping to move up to Alpine after January 1.

Jennings was born in Brawley, went to Mt. Helix and Grosmont High and graduated in 1965 from the University of Arizona. His wife grew up in La Mesa, graduated from SD State, and she is expecting their first child soon.

They are operating the drug store with Jamie Smith helping in the pharmacy on Saturday, have a new phone number, 445-2616 which is in their ad this issue.

SEWER PROJECT STARTS

L. A. Yahn, superintendent for Alpine Sewer District project, visited the Sun office Monday, says work will get underway Wednesday with the job completed before March, 1972. The R. L. Thibodo Construction Co. of San Marcos will be doing the work.

DELAWARE COUPLE LIKE ALPINE

Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Angus, 348 Lilac Lane, entertained her sister and husband Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Straley of Wilmington, Del. for two weeks. They flew out, visited the many places of interest here. Mrs. Straley is a horticulturist, also a bird watcher, was quite taken with the many different variety of flowers Mrs. Angus had in her garden along with the abundance of birds; many strangers to her.

They all drove to Los Angeles to visit another sister Alyce Hugy and then on to San Francisco and up Hwy 1 so they could see Big Sur. Straleys flew home from there, said it was a fantastic trip; hope to return soon.

Proofs of the Viejas Days Parade are available at the chamber office from 1 to 4:30 Tuesday thru Friday. Orders may be given to Peggy Geyer, chamber secretary. The pictures are excellent and all who participated in the parade should see them.

Advertise in the Sun, it gets results.

Marie Scott underwent surgery last month to correct a hernia of the esophagus. This is a serious operation but she came through nicely, is home again and she says "I'm doing just fine."

Mr. & Mrs. Theodore M. Brown Jr., recently had their daughter Kelly Christine baptised in the church; with Dr. Larson officiating.

BETHEL GETS NEW MINISTER

After M. L. Buttram resigned recently, officials of Bethel Assembly Church hired Roger Dunegan to take his place.

He had served a year as pastor of the church in Waynoka, Okla. He came to the area with his wife Twila and daughter Julie, 20 months old, is presently living in the Broadway Apartments in El Cajon. He is looking for a home here, will move up after the first of the year.

Dunegan was a Spec. 5 in the Army, completed his military service including a year in Vietnam. He was born in Houston, Mo., took his training in Bethany Bible College, Santa Cruz. He came to California in 1958 with his parents.

Rev. Dunegan invites all who do not have a church to come to their services Sunday at 9:45 or the regular Sunday evening service at 7 pm.

EDITORIAL

SHOPLIFTING COSTS YOU MONEY.

Studies in recent years is proving that honesty is rapidly becoming a shop-word, tired slogan, seldom practiced.

Every manager of a supermarket knows he can discount a fair percentage of his year's profits as shoplifting, pilferage, accidental or wanton destruction of perishables, damaged cans and bottles stolen or "borrowed" shopping carts.

While the checker smiles as he rings up the totals, he's also wondering if you have goods concealed in your clothing. When he asks for your driver's license to check a check, he's doing so because he has ended up holding a considerable number of bad checks--written by those who also live on the philosophy it's fair to cheat.

Even the government expects to be cheated out of false tax returns alone. But they would be relieved if this were the only area in which they are cheated.

Most people remain opposed to crime in all it's forms but the hazy difference between what is right and what is wrong has resulted in almost complete public indifference to crime. Bystanders ignore shootings', turn away from purse snatchers, refuse aid to victims of auto accidents and watch casually at a crime being done when they could plunge in and help the hapless victim.

Shoplifting in the US is expected to double by 1990 and unfortunately you have to pay for it indirectly. Motels tack on an additional charge in their fees to cover towels, sheets, blankets and now TV's and lamps are chained to prevent Mr. Average Citizen from making off with them. Stores spend billions to protect themselves from shoplifters but still lose in stolen goods.

In Biblical times thieves lost their hands when caught. This is too drastic, but more stringent punishment should be dealt out. Law enforcement officials decree the near-obsession of the modern courts with insuring the protection of the criminal of his "rights", instead of strengthening the laws prohibiting and punishing criminals. So long as criminal acts wear respectable clothing, the public finds them acceptable; but for how long?

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my appreciation for all of the flowers, cards and letters received during my recent bereavement--

Eve. Coppock.

FIRE HOUSE ADDITION NEARS END

The Kiwanis project to add a room on existing Fire House nears completion as this photo by Red Robbins shows. The roof was put on the 12 x 60 structure and all that remains to be done is a cleanup crew to make grounds neat and tidy. Kiwanis members donated time, money and energy on project, are proud of their accomplishment.

SPLASH OPENS WOMAN'S CLUB

A delightful swim party was enjoyed Woman's Club at the home of Katherine Jenney, Tavern Road, with a tour of her home enjoyed by all present.

A big splash opened the meeting when a slight nudge from Leata Judd sent Neda Hill to the bottom of the pool fully dressed. She came up, gave a big laugh and then put on a great swimming demonstration that was enjoyed by all.

PAPIKE NEW OPTIMIST PREXY

Saturday night Ed Papike was installed as president of the Optimists with Mick Reed his vice-president and Frank Scully secretary-treasurer.

The party and installation was at the home of Bud Broker, Monterey Pl. All enjoyed a catered dinner and Ed Papike's first board meeting was Wednesday night.

COMMUNITY CHURCH COMMENTS

By Theresa McCan

Sunday Oct. 3 is world wide communion when we join churches all over the word in the Sacrament. New members will be received into the church. An offering will be taken for the United Church of Christ "Neighbors in Need" program which goes to underprivileged groups in our country to assist them in providing for their special needs.

Mr. & Mrs. Forrest Baxter honored new members Vera Schulte, Miriam Wilson and Allie Vigneault at a dinner last Sunday night. After dinner informal conversation helped guests in getting acquainted with eachother and the work at the church. Other guests were W. B. Vigneault, Mr. & Mrs. William Bowler, Beulah Ford and Dr. Roger Larson.

Dr. Roger Larson left Monday for a few days at the United Church of Christ Southern California Conference ministerial retreat at Pilgrim Pines in the San Bernardino Mountains.

The Church Cabinet meets Tuesday, Oct. 5 at 7:30 in Jane Dunn Hall.

Raleigh Brae entered Navy Hospital last Sept. 17th to have an abdominal hernia reparied, was home Wednesday. This is the 4th time he has had to get the condition corrected. His wife Grace says we may see him loping up and down Alpine hills almost any day now.

The beautiful Afghan Isobel Pellegrin knitted was presented to the Alpine Art Assn. will be raffled off soon and money from tickets will go into their treasury.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Saturday horsemen numbering over 100 gathered at the Prinitive Horse Camp on the East Mesa in Cuyamaca Park and dedicated it.

Ruth McManus took her horse up and Mr. & Mrs. Doug Walker trailered their mules to partake in the ceremonies. Most heads of different horse clubs as well as Don Perkins were present and festivities started around 1 with the Pine Valley Riding Club's Color Guard there to add to the event.

ETI Clubs donated their services corrals, toilets and picnic tables. When donations come in, pipe corrals will be installed. The camp is on the Hiking & Riding Trail and is free and open to horse-minded citizens.

Ruth McManus has "Charlie Horse" for sale. He is a big Tennessee Walking Horse, 7 years old and she wants $600.

Betty Kuphaldt took a second in the costume class at Singing Hills horse show Sunday. She dressed up as a Charro was judged on 60% horse performance and 40% costume. She was quite happy to get a ribbon as Zephyr, a half Arab and half Tennessee Walker, as he had never been shown before, behaved and did an excellent job, she said.

Frosty Kuhn sold the nice black gelding he had advertised in the Sun, was glad he found a nice home for him.

The Desert Arabian Assn. is putting on an all day trip to Catalina Nov. 6th to visit Rigley's Arabian Horse Farm. Friends and members can go and it costs $10. round trip. A steamer is taken from San Pedro to Catalina, where you have lunch and then off to the farm to see the beautiful horses. Sounds like a real nice trip.

Dale & Scotty Ward and Gary & Margo Sharp are sure enjoying the donkey they got last week named Dego Jack. He is nice and gentle so they all can learn to ride. Their parents will get them horses later, as they all love Alpine, are here to stay.

KIWANIS ENJOYS BREAKFAST

Saturday Kiwanis members met at the Fire House and enjoyed their second annual firemen's appreciation breakfast with food catered by Alladins of La Mesa.

Alpine Kiwanis Club had many accomplishments under outgoing president Curley Collier's guidance. They were recounted at the morning meeting and all agree it was a banner year.

The club was honored at Lt. Governor"s Installation when net membership increase trophy and Lt. Governor Honor Club trophy were accepted by President Collier.

New Kiwanians inducted into the club Saturday were John Tully, Dirk Fitz, Ted Reynolds, John Russell, Col. Bill Gorski, Ron Clutter, Truman Heiser, Francis Tomonelli, Al Lightfield and Dr. Irving Wikler. Membership now is 68 and club members are proud of their increasing membership and past accomplishments.

TEXAS COUPLE LIKE ALPINE

Mr. & Mrs. E. A. Fowler of Amarillo, Tex. have just moved into the little cottage Ruth Burdett vacated on South Marshall Rd. owned by Muriel Bowlus.

They love Alpine, came here for the climate and are fixing up the house to suit them.

Mrs. Fowler's sister Jean Wong and husband live in Foster Trailer Park and their mother also lives here so they were not strangers to Alpine.

MRS. HOGGARD INJURED

A loose surf board put Mrs. Leila Hoggard in the hospital with a leg broken in two places. She was swimming in the La Jolla cove when the board hit her, knocked her off her feet and badly injured her. She owned Alpine Villa, sold out several years ago and moved to the beach.

MRS. COLBY'S DAUGHTER BACK

Mr. & Mrs. Robt. Kilpatrick are back from a 5-months trip that took them over 10,000 miles. They pulled a trailer, visited Canada and a good many states, had a gorgeous trip and will now make their home in Alpine. Mrs. Kilpatrick is Manila Colby's daughter.

Virginia Fuson has moved to Alpine to make her home with her mother Katheryn Black. She recently sold her home in San Diego, likes Alpine very much.

PATROL DOGS BEGIN TRAINING

Gary Sharp, left, and Mike Ward, pose with two beautiful collies they are training as patrol dogs to go along with them on their nightly rounds. The dogs are being taught to be aggressive, will give added security to men.

Their two cars are equipped with Citizen Band radios with one at home so constant contact with the cars on patrol can be had. This way they can give more service to clients and be in an area in minutes after call comes in, if trouble arises.

BATES ENJOY FISHING

Harold & Lucille Bates are back from a trip to Medford and Grants Pass Oregon. They found the fishing good and then on the way back stopped in San Francisco to visit their daughter Cathy, her husband Paul Kuphaldt and son Tony.

Walter Redding was operated on for a perforated ulcer, is home and convalescing nicely. His wife Lucfetia says he is picking up steadily but craves more food than his bland diet gives him. He hopes to be back on his job soon.

ALLIE'S DOLLS WIN RIBBON

The well-known doll collector Allie Vigneault entered 50 of her dolls in the annual Viejas Days parade here. Her husband Blackie, with head sticking out of the window, worked all day mounting dolls on top of car and making it attractive. Several of Mrs. Vigneault's award winning dolls were in the collection which was enjoyed by all who had chance to inspect it after parade.

The Woman's Missionary group of First Baptist Church of the Willows had their first meeting last month with Merdell Hay resigning as president due to the recent loss of her husband. The position will be filled as soon as the o nominating committee can come up with candidates. They all worked on White Cross bandages for various missionaries.

DOUBLE TALK
By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

We think every female cat in Alpine had kittens this month so if you are in the market for a kit, just call us. We know where you can get them with long hair, blue eyes, no tails, etc.

If you are interested in entering the annual Mother Goose Contest, you can sign up now and have until Oct. 23rd to sell $35. worth of Mother Goose Parade stickers which will qualify the contestant. You have to be in high or junior high school. The winner will be chosen Nov. 6th at the Coronation Ball and preside over the parade Nov. 21st. Fred Hunt, president of the association, promises a "Bigger & Better" parade for the 25th edition. We don't know how he plans to improve the big event but it has been tremendous every year we have seen it.

Little Theresa Brotherton has her left arm in a cast, broke it when she was playing around their pool. She is in the second grade, is right handed so it has not hurt her schooling.

Vonnie Randall just got out of the hospital as she had to have some minor surgery. She is home but not feeling up to par, has to return for more later on.

Dr. Dale Burkee, a trustee at Grossmont College has taken issue with the large number of dogs on campus this year and we haertily agree. School is no place for an animal and we are not alone in feeling this way. Besides the distraction, there is the case against the dog running lose and doing his job wherever he happens to be. We like to sit on the lawn during a break but when it is full of flies and dog remains then we can't. We hope Grossmont officials put a ban on them and soon. We love dogs, have two, but they stay at home and that is where they should stay. We hope Dr. Burkee gets some action and soon.

NEW SIGNS COMING

Signs that tell drivers what to do through pictures instead of words will soon become commonplace on Calif. state highways.

The new symbol signs are intended for international use and should be of particular value to non-English speaking motorists in this country and to Americans who travel abroad. For the next few years a word message plate below each sign will give drivers the meaning of the symbols.

Mrs. Jo Snodgrass had major surgery in Paradise Valley Hospital recently, is home and feeling fine.

OLD GLOBE OPENS WITH COMEDY

"Here Today" opens Oct. 5 on stage at the Old Globe Theatre, is the first production of the 35th year of the Old Globe. five other plays will be presented at the adjacent Cassius Carter Center Stage through May.

"Here Today" is a high-styled comedy that competes a stern-minded Boston matriarch against the exuberant scheming of a spirited young woman. The arrival of an ex-wife to aid the current romantic pursuits of her former husband develops complications to this comedy.

Special reduced prices on tickets for all students through college are available at $1. 50 each.

RIDING AND HIKING TRAIL

There are three thousand miles of riding and hiking trails linking California from the Mixican border to the Oregon line. They wind from sea level to an altitude of about 10,000 feet.

Way back in 1944 the Calif. State Horseman's Assoc. carried a plan for a state trail to the Governor, Earl Warren. In 1945 the plan was enacted as the Cal. Riding and Hiking Trail's Bill. This was the beginning of one of the greatest horse trail developments probably in the history of the world.

Thousands of trails now take off in various spots from the riding and hiking trail making California a wonderful place to ride and find trails to follow. Some parts of the trail take you through Yosemite Valley with the famous half-dome as a beautiful scene.

The trails will pass through 38 of the state's 52 counties. There are many rest areas and campsites where horsemen can stop and rest their animals and spend the night. In some spots there are campgrounds with all the comforts of home, like hot and cold showers. Corrals for your horses and barbecue pits. In others it just might be a couple of hitching posts and running water.

These overnight camps will eventually be spaced from 15 to 20 miles apart, a good days ride so that you can go on for days if you like and find a good rest area at the end of the trail. You can follow the trail and wind up at the Oregon border and have facilities all the way. The trail will take you through the hot dry desert to the tall redwoods and rushing rivers. You can get on some of the trails and go on north into more rugged country.

Which ever way you look at it the riding and hiking trails are a wonderful thing for the horsemen, and should be enjoyed by all.

SWERDLOFFS ENTERTAIN

Mr. & Mrs. Bud Swerdloff entertained Minnie Lee Hudson of Albuquerque for a week and drove her to Los Angeles to catch a plane home. They picked up Kathryn Bennett from Glendale and brought her back with them. She has been enjoying Alpine's cool weather and clear air, will return home by train this weekend.

COCKAYNES ENTERTAIN

Mr. & Mrs. Don Cockayne entertained his sister Lynn Rosback and infant son Mike last week. She and her husband are moving to Los Alamos, N.M., spent time with her brother and wife before she flew to her new home.

MRS. MOLINARI ENTERTAINS

Recent house guests of Anna Molinari were Mrs. Isable Simkins of Martinez Lake, Az., who spent two weeks here. And Helen Waters of Silver Springs, Md. Mrs. Molinari and Mrs. Waters were elementary school classmates in Washington DC. They had not had a visit together for more than 20 years.

Anna's family and friends gathered at her home Sunday to help celebrate her 73rd birthday.

Teachers prefer teaching at the primary schools because that's the only place where they can be sure there will be room to park their cars.

CONTRACEPTIVE FOR PETS

The mounting problem caused by an overpopulation of domestic pets has prompted the veterinary profession to support research for a safe, effective and inexpensive method of birth control for these animals. They are in the process of gathering funds for research, feel that a birth control for dogs and cats, other than the surgical methods. should be made available to the public at a niminal cost.

SCOUTS ENJOY JAMBOREE

After a 20-day trip to Japan, 55 Scouts and their leaders arrived home today. The youthful travelers brought back many interesting stories of their tour and enjoyed the ride on the world's fastest train to the jamboree site at the base of Mt. Fuji.

Over 21,000 Scouts and leaders represented more than 100 countries. The nine day experience at the jamboree showed that the common bond of Scouting can overcome differences in language, customs, race and religion.
